

Summer 2023 Hawai'i Island BON DANCE & Tooro Nagashi Schedule

All dances are on Sat. night, unless indicated differently (e.g., Celeb. Of Life, Hilo Daijingu, Life Care Center). This schedule may be incorrect, contact temples to confirm place, date, time, etc. This year there are many cancellations and changes: e.g., Kona Daifukuji's afternoon dance. The number of hours of some dances may also have been shortened, ending earlier than before. --- Some dances were cancelled due to not enough volunteers to help, please volunteer to help next year!

Tooro Nagashi is the floating lantern ceremony, not a bon dance. All five will be on Sundays. The first is the Hilo Celebration of Life, then followed by Hilo Hooganji, Taishoji Soto, Hawi Jodo, & North Hawaii Hospice. The first three will be in Hilo; at Reed's Bay, then at Wailoa Harbor. The fourth (called Fune Nagashi) is at Mahukona Harbor, north of Kawaihae. The fifth is at the Fairmont Orchid Hotel in South Kohala. --- Ask, maybe you can have your own floating lantern.

Hints: search on YouTube to learn dance moves, dance history, and religious meanings.
